

PIRS OF SIND AGAINST NON-CO-OPERATION.

With a view to combat the Civil-Disobedience movement a meeting of the leading Pirs of Sind was called by the Makhdum of Hala at Hyderabad (Sind) at 6.00 P.M.. On the 4th of July, 1930 in the bungalow of Mr. Jan Mohammed Bhurgri. Forty Nine leading Sind Pirs attended.

On the proposal of Pir Sayed Ghulam Hyder Shah, of Bulri seconded by Pir Baqadar Shah, Mukhdum Ghulam Mahomed Sahib Sujada-nashin of Hala was voted to the chair.

Makhdum Ghulam Hyder Sahib of Hala, as the convener of the meeting, made an opening speech in which he condemned the Civil Dis-obedience movement and showed how it was leading to disorder and lawlessness all over the country, and how all forms of authority were being undermined. He condemned the participation of school-boys in the movement and said that if left free the next generation would grow up to the very unruly and insubordinate. He said that the movement was essentially a Hindu movement with which the Mussalmans had nothing to do, and the Muslim community stood to gain by remaining aloof from it. He hoped that British statesmen would see the wisdom of conceding the reasonable demands of the Indian Mussalmans, as put forward by His Highness Sir Agha Khan, and that the Round Table Conference would not fail to sanction them. He concluded with a strong appeal to all the Pirs to use their influence in defeating the Civil dis-obedience movement which, if left unchecked, would introduce Bolshevism in the country.

The following resolutions were then unanimously passed:

1. This meeting of the Pirs of the Province of Sind, while strongly condemning the present Civil Dis-obedience movement started by Hindus, urges on all citizen's, who have respect for law, to do every thing in their power to combat it, and with that end in view requests all Pirs and leading men of Sind to take effective steps, within their sphere of influence, to check the movement and prevent it spreading further.
