Public conveyances to be licensed.

3. (1) No person shall keep or let for hire any public conveyance without a licence granted by the '[Superintendent]' in this behalf.

(2) On every public conveyance—

- (a) the number of the conveyance as entered in the license granted for the same, and
- (b) where the conveyance is licensed to carry passengers, the number of passengers which it is licensed to carry, shall be clearly inscribed in such manner as the '[Superintendent]' may direct.

Licences for public conveyances.

4. (1) Such licences shall remain in force for the licensing year, unless sooner determined under the provisions of this Act, and shall be renewable.

(2) Such licences shall contain the following and such other particulars and conditions as the '[Superintendent]' may prescribe:

- (a) the full name and address of the licensee;
- (b) the date on which the licence was granted and the date on which it will expire by efflux of time;
- (c) the local area for which the licence is granted;
- (d) the number and class of the conveyance;
- (e) the number of horses or other animals (if any) by which it is to be drawn;
- (f) the number of passengers (if any) which it may carry.

(3) Such licences shall not be transferred by the licensee to any other person without the sanction of the '[Superintendent]' and if transferred without such sanction shall thereupon become void. Such sanction when granted shall be endorsed on the licence.

Grounds on which licence may be refused or cancelled.

5. (1) The '[Superintendent]' may refuse to grant a license for a public conveyance if in his opinion the conveyance is insufficiently found or is otherwise unfit for the purpose for which it is intended.

(2) The '[Superintendent]' may refuse to renew, and may at any time suspend or cancel, a licence for a public conveyance on either of the foregoing grounds, or if in his opinion—

- (i) the licensee has committed a breach of any provision of this Act or of a rule made under this Act or of a condition of the licence, or

1. Subs. by the Sind Laws (Adaptation, Revision, Renewal and Declaration) Ordinance, 1955 (Sind 5 of 1955), s. 7, Sch. III, for "Commissioner of Police".

- (ii) a conveyance licensed for carrying goods has been used for carrying passengers:

[Provided that no order shall be passed under the foregoing sub-sections unless the person likely to be affected thereby is given an opportunity of being heard.]

(3) When refusing to renew, or suspending or cancelling a licence for a public conveyance, the ²[Superintendent] may erase the inscription made thereon in accordance with this Act.

6. (1) When granting or renewing a licence for a public conveyance, and at other times when necessary, the ¹[Superintendent] shall cause the particulars required by clauses (a) and (b) of sub-section (2) of section 3 to be painted or otherwise clearly inscribed upon the conveyance. Number, etc., to be inscribed on conveyance.

(2) No fee shall be charged for any inscription made under the foregoing sub-section when it is made at the time when the licence is granted or at the annual renewal of the licence, but when such sum towards the cost of such inscription as the ¹[Superintendent] inscription is made at any other time ²[the licensee shall pay such sum towards the cost of such inscription as the ¹[Superintendent] shall by rules direct].

7. (1) For the grant of a licence for a public conveyance a fee shall be charged at such rate as the ²[Superintendent] shall prescribe. Fees for public conveyance licences.

(2) For the renewal of such licence a fee at one-half of the rate chargeable under the foregoing sub-section shall be charged.

8. (1) No horse shall be used for drawing a public conveyance except under a licence granted by the ¹[Superintendent] in respect of such horse. Licensing of horses.

(2) Such licences shall remain in force for the licensing year unless sooner determined under this Act, and shall be renewable.

(3) Such licences shall contain the following and such other particulars and conditions as the ¹[Superintendent] may prescribe:

- (a) the full name and address of the licensee;
- (b) the date on which the licence was granted and the date on which it will expire by efflux of time;
- (c) the local area for which the licence is granted;
- (d) a description of the horse for which the licence is granted and the marks of identification of the same;
- (e) the class of conveyance to draw which the horse may be used.

1. Proviso added by Ord. XLIII of 1984, s.2.

2. Subs. by the Sind Laws (Adaptation, Revision, Repeal and Declaration) Ordinance, 1955 (Sind 5 of 1955), s. 7, Sch. III, for "Commissioner of Police".

3. Subs. by Sind 7 of 1928, s. 3, for "a fee at one-half of the rate chargeable for the grant of a licence for a public conveyance under section 7, sub-section (1), shall be charged".

(4) Such licences may not be transferred by the licensee to any person without the sanction of the '[Superintendent]' and if transferred without such sanction shall thereupon become void. Such sanction shall be endorsed on the licence.

[(5) Such licences shall if so directed by the '[Superintendent]' be carried in the public conveyance for drawing which the horse is being used and shall be produced for inspection whenever required by any police officer.]

of horses.

9. When granting a licence for a horse the '[Superintendent]' '[may, if he thinks it necessary] brand such horse on the hoof in such manner that it may be easily identified.

Grounds on which licence for horse may be refused or cancelled
and examination by a veterinary practitioner

10. (1) The '[Superintendent]' may refuse to grant or renew, and may at any time suspend, a licence for a horse if in his opinion such horse is in any way unfit for use in a public conveyance [:]

[Provided that no order shall be passed unless the person likely to be affected thereby is given an opportunity of being heard.]

(2) In case of such refusal or suspension the owner of the horse or licensee, as the case may be, may require that such horse be examined by a veterinary practitioner of the Government or of a local authority, and, if in the opinion of such practitioner the horse is fit for use in a public conveyance, the '[Superintendent]' shall grant or renew the licence or cancel the order of suspension.

Licensing of Drivers.

Drivers to be licensed.

11. (1) No person shall act as driver of a public conveyance without a licence granted by the '[Superintendent]' in this behalf.

Compensation payable by driver causing damage.

29. The driver of any public conveyance who shall by negligence or misconduct, cause any hurt or damage shall, in addition to any punishment to which he may be liable by law, pay the complainant such reasonable compensation as the Magistrate may direct, and such compensation shall be leviable as a fine.

Procedure.

Arrest by police.

30. Any police officer may arrest without warrant any person who has committed any offence under this Act, and may seize and detain any conveyance or horse in relation to which such offence has been committed.

Procedure in case of dispute.

31. (1) In case of any dispute between the hirer and driver of a public conveyance, either party may require the other to proceed forthwith to the nearest Magistrate's Court, where the dispute shall be determined in a summary manner by the Magistrate then sitting.

(2) If no Magistrate is then sitting, either party may require the other to proceed to the [officer in charge of the nearest police station] who shall, if necessary, arrange for the hearing of the case at the next sitting of the Court.

(3) On failure of either party to appear before the Magistrate in pursuance of a requisition under sub-section (1) or sub-section (2) or to attend the Court at any subsequent sitting to which the case may be adjourned, the Magistrate may decide the case ex-parte, and his decision shall be binding on both parties.

(4) * * * * * if the hirer is about to leave the [place where the dispute arises], a police officer to whom reference has been made under sub-section (2) may, after hearing both parties, require the hirer to deposit such sum, if any, as appears to be due by him, and, if any compensation appears to be due under section 28, an additional sum of ten rupees, and the hirer shall not be required to attend the Magistrate's Court. The police officer shall report the dispute to the Magistrate and the Magistrate may award the driver such sum, if any, not being in excess of the amount deposited by the hirer, as he considers just, and if any offence appears to have been committed, shall inquire into the same according to law. In either case where any surplus remains of the deposit made by the hirer, the Magistrate shall give notice hereof to the hirer and return it to him on demand.

1. Subs. by Sind 7 of 1928, s. 10, for "nearest police officer of rank not below that of inspector".

2. The words "Provided that" rep. by the Sind Laws (Adaptation, Revision, Repeal and Declaration) Ordinance, 1955 (Sind 5 of 1955) s. 6, Sch. II.

3. Subs. [ibid., s. 7, Sch. III, "for City of Bombay".

(5) Where the Magistrate is satisfied that one party had no reasonable ground for requiring the other party to proceed to his Court or to the nearest police officer, he may direct the former party to pay to the latter such compensation not exceeding fifty rupees as he thinks fit, and such compensation shall be leviable as a fine.

32. (1) When a complaint is made before a Magistrate against a driver of a public conveyance under this Act, the Magistrate may, if the driver fails to appear, summon the licensee of such conveyance to appear and produce the driver. Licensee may be required to produce driver.

(2) If the licensee after being duly summoned fails without reasonable excuse to appear or to produce the driver he shall be punishable with fine not exceeding fifty rupees. Penalty.

33. If any person who has hired a public conveyance refuses to pay the legal fare thereof, the Magistrate may order payment of such fare and also of reasonable compensation for loss of time; such fare and compensation shall be leviable as a fine. Refusal to pay fare.

Miscellaneous.

34. (1) All property left in any public conveyance shall be forthwith deposited by the licensee or driver of such conveyance at the nearest police station. Disposal of property penalty.

(2) The '[Superintendent]' shall cause such property to be returned to such person as shall prove to his satisfaction that he is entitled to the same, on payment by such person of all expenses reasonably incurred and of such compensation to the driver of the public conveyance as the '[Superintendent]' may consider just.

(3) Any licensee or driver failing to deposit any property as required by sub-section (1) shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty rupees.
